WELCOME!

Plum Lake Campground, sites 1201-1218, is in the central portion of the Northern Highland American Legion State Forest on the southwest corner of Plum Lake. The 1,108-acre lake offers good boating and fishing experiences. Although small, you won't be disappointed – especially with the great views from the lake sites. Camping reservations are required and can be made for the same day of your arrival or up to 11 months in advance of your planned date of occupancy. Campers must make a reservation before setting up on any site.
